Photo Identification Required to Vote in Election

Senate Bill 14, The Voter Identification Bill, requires a voter to present a photo identification to qualify to vote in all elections held in Texas. The bill became effective on Jan. 1, 2012. The traditional voter registration certificate will no longer be accepted as a qualifier for a person to vote.

Under Senate Bill 14, the acceptable forms of identification for a voter to qualify to vote include documents issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety, such as a Texas driver's license, personal identification card, concealed handgun license, U. S. passport, U. S. military identification card, or a U. S. citizenship certificate with a voter's photo.
